Physical Traits

Changelings are naturally capable of Fey Glamour magic, which they use to disguise themselves as normal looking humans. In there true form they look like humanoids with skin and hair the color of white chalk, their eyes are as white as their sclera making them appear to not have pupils or irises. A transformed Changeling looks like just about any other human but they have some features that lean towards the off putting like, they tend to smile a bit too wide and for too long, they stare at people as well. As well as their behavior which follows the Rules of the Fey, they are polite and generous at the surface level but like most Fey this serves as a trap for mortals who they would love to see enslaved or trapped into their culture.

Culture

Changelings have an species wide affection that borderlines on obsession with humans, whom are their main targets to trick or try to mate with them. Because of this the Republic of Mages diplomatic officers are well versed in identifying a Changeling.

Abilities

- Shapeshifting (Limited, can only take on the appearance of different humans): Changelings have the power to alter their form and appearance to different humans.
- Vocal Replication: Changelings can mimic any sound they hears using their voice.
- Voice Manipulation: Changelings can freely manipulate their voice, allowing them to control their voices to imitate sounds of creatures such as animal noises and explosions or increase or decrease the tone of their voice.
